Bluehost Vs. GreenGeeks Shared Hosting Comparison Analysis

Let us Compare and Analyze on the Shared hosting plans provided by two most popular web hosting providers.

That is bluehost (Shared Basic plan) and the Echo-friendly GreenGeeks (Shared Lite plan)

If you are someone looking for best budget-friendly hosting services

- ✓ To start a first blog(s) or start a small business website on a serious note
- ✓ Business websites that needs presence on the web only for promoting (advertising) their products
- ✓ Someone who is hosting not for profit websites or blogs
- ✓ Someone who wants to have a web presence with portfolio of your skills and experiences
- ✓ You are someone just want to test the waters before you dive into blogging or business

And, need a comparison analysis on the price and features provided by these hosting services

You can read on!

So that you can make informed decisions depending on the analysis provided here.

Based on the price (you can save) and features (choices) that are provided by these two hosting services.

Bluehost Vs.GreenGeeks Shared Hosting Comparison Analysis

Why Shared Hosting?

Shared hosting is where the web hosting server is shared by many users.

In other words multiple users share the same server and resources like CPU, RAM, Disk Space (SSD) and bandwidth.

It is the basic hosting services provided by the most hosting services.

Moreover, it is the most budget-friendly hosting services for any beginners.

For any, beginner bloggers or someone who is starting a business or for someone who owns a small business and looking for migration.

Therefore, shared hosting would be a best option for anyone who is starting over.

Basically shared means you will be sharing the resources like the CPU, RAM, Disk Storage (SSD) and other resources with other individuals on the same server.

Unlike the dedicated server, here you will be sharing the resources with other users. At the same time the server maintenance cost and management cost is shared by multiple sites. Hence, lower monthly cost.

Moreover, once your blog or business starts to grow you have a choice to upgrade to further plans like VPS or dedicated hosting.

And, if you are looking on how to start or create a blog in 2021 with a snap you can go through my Blog Building: The 6 easy steps in starting your own blog.

Bluehost Vs.GreenGeeks Shared Hosting Comparison Analysis

Below are the prices and price differences you will be paying if you opt for basic shared hosting from bluehost (Basic) or GreenGeeks (Lite) monthly plan, or 12 months (Annual) plan or 24 months (Biennial) plan or 36 months (Triennial) plan periods.

Shared Hosting	BlueHost Basic	You pay ($)	GreenGeeks Lite	You pay ($)	Difference ($)
Plan Periods	12,24 and 36 months		Monthly, Annually, Biennially, Triennially
Monthly	No plan	-	$10.95/mo. + $15	-	-
12 Months (Annual)	$5.95/mo.	71.40	$3.95/mo.	47.4	24.00
24 Months (Biennial)	$4.95/mo.	118.8	$2.95/mo.	70.8	48.00
36 Months (Triennial)	$3.95/mo.	142.20	$2.49/mo.	89.64	52.56

Note: Bluehost doesn't have a monthly plan*

If you look at the prices for elementary plans, bluehost Basic plan price is starting from $3.95/mo. for 36 months' time period.

GreenGeeks Lite plan price is starting from $2.49/mo. for Triennial (3 year) contract.

Below is the chart on the difference of percentage you will be paying for bluehost (Basic) Vs. GreenGeeks (Lite) for one year plan (51%↑), two year plan (68%↑) and 3 year plan (59%↑) periods.

Bluehost Vs.GreenGeeks Shared Hosting Comparison Analysis

Note that these prices are only for the first time buyers. After the time period 36 months (3 years) or 24 months or 12 months (1 Year) they return to Auto-renewal prices.

That means, after the triennial contract years' (36 months) time period the prices Auto-renews at current rates.

bluehost Basic Plan current rate is $7.99/mo for 36 months and for GreenGeeks Lite Plan the current rate is $10.95/mo for triennial (3 year).

All hosting payments are paid for upfront and full at sign up.

- That means if you opt for 36 months shared basic plan ($$3.95 * 12 * 3$) total amount for bluehost will be $142.20.
- And, for GreenGeeks for a shared starter 3 year plan ($$2.49 * 12 * 3$) total amount you will be paying is $89.64.

Here, is the table how much you will be paying for 36 months or Triennial (3 year plan) for bluehost and GreenGeeks elementary shared plans.

Shared Hosting	bluehost Basic	GreenGeeks Lite
Period	36 Months	Triennially (3 Year)
Price	$3.95	$2.49
Total upfront payment you pay	$142.20	$89.64

- ✓ Here, you will be saving $52.56. Though this might look like small difference in amount for few.
- ✓ At the same time this might also have an impact on someone who is planning to start (blogging or business) and taking small steps to progress.
- ✓ This might also make a difference for someone who is hosting not for profit blogs.
- ✓ Or for few that only need website presence on the web for promoting (advertising) their products

Takeaway Tip

Above, we have seen the bluehost Vs GreenGeeks Shared Hosting Comparison Analysis.

As I prompted earlier, I only do the explanation and analysis part here.

Moreover, since both the products are equally competitive out there.

Now, it is your decision to make according to your situation and requirements, taking into consideration your budget and purpose of hosting.

However, here is my take,

- If you are someone who is on a tight budget and just starting over you can opt for GreenGeeks.
- The price difference ($52.56) might also make a difference for someone hosting not for profit blogs.
- For few that might only need website presence on the web for promoting (advertising) their products.
- Since GreenGeeks, prices are less in comparative to the bluehost Shared hosting.
- Moreover, if you are someone who is considering keeping your budget as low as possible even after one year or two years or 3 years depending on your hosting purpose you can go with the GreenGeeks.
- Because, the renewal prices for bluehost are much higher in comparison with the GreenGeeks.
- Moreover, with GreenGeeks you have a monthly option too with no contract, no commitments, cancel anytime and pay monthly.
- Additionally, going with GreenGeeks, you get the feel good happiness that you are part of GreenGeeks who has adopted to provide Echo-friendly services.
- At the same time, if you are someone who can afford the current prices and further renewal prices you can opt for bluehost.
